DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election of Group I, claims 7-14 and 17-24 with traverse in Paper No. 11 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Accordingly, claims 15-16 are withdrawn from consideration since they are non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 7-12 and 17-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Wagner et al. (WO 97/49394).

Wagner et al. on the abstract, page 2, lines 1-6, line 10-12, lines 19-22, page 4, line 12, page 12, lines 1-4, page 14, Example 1 and page 15, Example 2, teach Applicants' solid oral dosage form comprising valsartan set forth in claims 7-12 and 17-23.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 13 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wagner et al. (WO 97/49394) in view of Pool et al.(1998).

Wagner et al. on page 12, lines 1-4, page 14, Example 1 and page 15, Example 2, teach Applicants' solid oral dosage form comprising valsartan set forth in claims 13 and 8.

Wagner et al. also on page 4, lines 22-23, and page 7, lines 20-23 teach dosage range of crospovidone in Wagner's composition is preferably present in an amounts of from 10 to 20 %, e.g. about 13% by weight.

Wagner et al. on page 2, lines 15-22 teach preferred dosage range of valsartan as 10 to 250mg consists entirely of valsartan and the effective amounts can be easily determined by person skilled in the art by routine experimentation and with no undue burden.

Pool et al. on the abstract teach the various dosage amounts of valsartan including the dose up to 320 mg administered once daily for treatment of hypertension.

Pool et al. also teach on the abstract that valsartan provides a clear increase in blood-pressure-lowering efficacy with increasing dose up to 320mg or the dose-responsive antihypertensive efficacy across the therapeutic dose range, which is demonstrated by the data.

The difference between primary reference and Applicants' claimed invention is dosage range of valsartan more than 250mg and up to 360mg set forth in claim 14 and the crospovidone content less than or equal to 13%. However, the skill artisan would have been motivated to modify the amount of crospovidone content with reasonable expectation of success, since Wagner et al. teach that crospovidone is preferably present in any amount of from 10 to 20%. Furthermore, the Pool's data demonstrate a clear increase in blood-pressure-lowering efficacy with increasing dose up to 320mg of valsartan. Therefore, the skill artisan would be motivated with reasonable expectation of success to formulate Wagner's composition up to 320mg or higher amounts of Valsartan since as demonstrated by Pool's data, there is a clear increase in blood-pressure-lowering efficacy with increasing dose of valsartan.

For these reasons the claimed subject matter is deemed to fail to patentably distinguish over the state of the art as represented by the cited references. The claims are therefore properly rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103.

None of the claims are allowed.
